Welcome

I'm glad that you are here!

When it comes to major events like that big birthday, anniversary, or even the day you say "I do", you want an invitation that sets the stage. One as unique as your party is going to be. Because hitting these major milestones in life is anything but ordinary!

The Event Identity Invitation Packages by The Graphics Gal provide you with custom created from scratch invitation suites sure to make your guests anticipate your event. This means each design is lovingly created for you and is specific to your needs. These are not pre-made templates that you fill in or catalogs you choose from. Typically, when you order invitations you order each item separately, but the Event Identity Invitation Packages provide you with an entire suite of invitation items for one great price.

Make your special day one to be anticipated and remembered before guests ever set foot in the banquet room!

That Was So Fun...

So much less stress...

I'm so glad I called you...

You actually listened...

These are the things my clients say to me regularly and if you choose The Graphics Gal chances are pretty high that you will say these things too.

So if you've ever thought:

Why can't I find the exact invitation I want!

Who has TIME to make their own Invites!

Um...half of our guests don't speak English, now what?

You are definitely in the right place and I'm excited to meet you!

but first...

Allow me to introduce myself

MY RING IS A TIE FIGHTER
(AND YES, I CREATED MY OWN WEDDING INVITES)

Hi! I'm Patrice!

I'm your Graphics Gal. I've always loved invitations. They mean a party is coming! The very first invitation I created was for a college classmate who desperately needed a rocket ship invitation for her son's 3rd birthday party. It was a great experience, the invites looked great and I loved helping her. I have since created dozens of invites for parties and weddings, including the invites for my own wedding in 2017 (see photo). I completely understand how stressful this time can be and I aim to make it less stressful!

I'm a solo entrepreneur and I run this business with the help of my computer and smart phone. I'm client focused and work with you as a team mate, not for you as an employee. Listening to you and working alongside you allows me to create a design that you love. You are part of the process every step of the way.

I'm also a total goofball who loves Sci-Fi and Fantasy. I have been known to do the "Vulcan Salute" to greet my friends. I love Star Wars and my engagement ring is a Tie Fighter (see photo). I take photos everywhere I go and have been carrying a camera with me since the mid 1990s. I also constantly have music on and love watching movies.

Happy Client

"My fiancé and I needed two sets of invitations for our wedding – one in Spanish and one in English. We spent time looking through the samples at stationery suppliers. The ones we felt we could afford were a bit boring for our taste, and the price for two sets was beyond the top of our budget for invitations. Furthermore, the stationers were less than friendly and encouraging when it came to discussing two sets of invitations in different languages. I happened upon an ad for Purple Rose Graphics and sent an email describing our predicament. Patrice sent a warm reply very quickly, and she was entirely open to the new experience of bilingual invitations. We were sold! Patrice moved us through the process quickly and efficiently, and, more importantly, she created absolutely lovely designs among which to choose. She understood exactly what we wanted, and we could not be happier with the end result. As an artist, Patrice displayed talent. As a business owner, Patrice displayed courtesy, kindness, promptness, and openness. And all this for a very fair price! I look forward to any future interactions with Patrice, and I wish her all the best in her business endeavor."

– Chris C, Fullerton

*I got the invitations today and they are beautiful.
You did such a great job!
We both love them and I know everyone will love them too.*

They are going to be in for such a treat!

Thank you again!

faq

What kind of services are provided by The Graphics Gal?

I create print ready invitations and invitation suites.

How long does a project take?

It depends on the project. For custom invites and semi-custom invites, I can get an initial draft called a proof to you within 3-5 business days of your payment clearing. Rounds of changes depend on how fast you make decisions. Once I hear back from you, I usually can get a new proof out within 1 – 3 business days. Average timeline for most projects is 2 – 4 weeks from start of project to final design approval. Printing takes about 2 weeks.

What is the design process like?

Consult Meeting > Proposal > Payment > Initial Proof > Make Edits > Design Approved > Final Files Sent (either to you or the printing team)

What types of payment are accepted?

All Major Credit Cards, Check, PayPal

Do you build websites or create promotional products like pens and t-shirts?

No. Unfortunately, I do not create websites and I do not create promotional products. I have some amazing friends who do just that so please visit the “Resources” page on the website

I have a design already; do you do printing?

No, sorry. I only offer printing coordination as a courtesy to my current design clients. please visit the “Resources” page on the website to connect with one of my preferred printing companies

I need this tomorrow! Do you accept rush jobs?

No, I don't accept rush jobs. I do not like to do overnight or two-day turnaround. It just never looks right and I want you to like what gets created. If you have a project needed within a week, I can consider a shorter deadline project based on my current schedule.

How does the Self Personalized Invites Work?

Those are slightly different, you can purchase the design from the ETSY shop and then follow the provided instructions to personalize the text on your computer or smart device.
